The Student Election Committee (Studentischer Wahlvorstand)

ELECTION NOTICE

Student Parliament elections, summer semester 2014

Pursuant to resolutions it passed on 15 November 2013, 28 November 2013, 16 January 2014, 13 March 2014 and on 10 April 2014 the student election committee (Studentischer Wahlvorstand) of the student body of the Technische Universität Berlin hereby serves notice that elections to the 35th Student Parliament (Studierendenparlament) will be held in the summer semester of 2014 in accordance with Sect. 4 of the ballot regulations governing elections to the institutions of the student body at the Technische Universität Berlin (WahlOStud).

The elections will be conducted in accordance with Sect. 18, Sub-sect. 3 of the Berlin Higher Education Act (Berliner Hochschulgesetz – BerlHG) of 12 October 1990 (GVBl. p. 2165) in its revised version of 26 July 2011 (GVBl. p. 378), in accordance with Sect. 48 BerlHG and the regulations governing election principles at institutes of higher education in Berlin (Hochschul-Wahlgrundsätze-Verordnung – HWGVO) as valid on 26 August 1998 (GVBl. p. 249) and also in accordance with the ballot regulations governing elections to the institutes of the student body at the Technische Universität Berlin (WahlOStud) as valid on 25 January 2005 (AMBl. TU Nr. 7/2005, p. 235).

Pursuant to Sect. 11 WahlOStud, eligible voters will be asked to cast their votes in ballot boxes, though absentee voting will be permitted provided a corresponding application is filed.

Timeframe

- Thursday, 24 April to Friday, 9 May 2014: electoral roll will be on display at the main office of the central election committee (Büro der Geschäftsstelle des Zentralen Wahlvorstands), rooms H2028/30.
- 9 May 2014, 3.00 p.m.: deadline for submission of party list nominations and election newspaper articles to the main office of the central election committee (Büro der Geschäftsstelle des Zentralen Wahlvorstands). rooms H2028/30.
- Monday, 16 June to Friday, 20 June 2014: polling days at the assigned polling stations.

Student Parliament Membership

The Student Parliament comprises 60 members.

Election Principles (Sect. 2 HWGVO and Sect. 3 WahlOStud)

The election will be held in accordance with the principles of personalised proportional representation. Under personalised proportional representation, voters choose a list and cast their vote by placing a cross next to the name of an applicant listed on the ballot or they enter the name of another applicant on the list in the empty space provided and place their cross next to this name. The vote that is cast applies to both the applicant and the list to which this person is affiliated. Seats are apportioned across the entire list in proportion to the total number of votes cast, using the largest remainder method (Hare/Niemeyer). In the event of a tie (two equal percentages), the chair of the election committee will draw lots.

Eligibility for voters and candidacy (Sections 3, 4 and 5 HWGVO)

All full-time students enrolled at the Technische Universität Berlin are eligible to vote in the Student Parliament election.

Viewing the electoral roll (Sect. 5, Sub-sections 2 to 4 WahlOStud)

In the run-up to the election, the electoral roll can be viewed from 24 April to 9 May 2014 at the office of the central election committee (Büro des Zentralen Wahlvorstandes), rooms H 2028/30, during (the usual) office hours (9.00 a.m. to 12.00 p.m. and 2.00 p.m. to 3.00 p.m.).

All eligible voters may submit their objections to the electoral roll, along with any evidence supporting their objection, to the central election committee in writing by 3 p.m. on 9 May 2014. The election committee will inform the objecting party/parties of their decision.

Party list nominations and election newspaper articles (Sect. 6, Sub-sect. 5, and Sect. § 9 WahlOStud)

Election newspaper (§ 9 WahlOStud)

The student election committee (Studentischer Wahlvorstand) will publish an election newspaper. In addition to the party list nominations and any election newspaper articles that may have been submitted, the newspaper will contain general information on the election procedure as well as details of where the polling stations are located and when they will be open.

Verification and publication of the party list nominations (Sect. 7 WahlOStud)

The election committee decides on which party list nominations are admissible. Party list nominations that fail to satisfy the stipulations of Sect. 6 WahlOStud, or which are ambiguous, will not be accepted.

If several party list nominations are submitted, the chair of the election committee will draw lots to determine the order in which the party list nominations are listed.

All accepted or rejected party list nominations will be posted on the bulletin boards of the central election committee (Zentraler Wahlvorstand):

1. behind the foyer in the main building, in the left-hand corridor leading to the student cafeteria (Mensa).
2. outside the main office of the central election committee (Büro der Geschäftsstelle des Zentralen Wahlvorstandes), rooms H2028/30.

Objections to any of the accepted party list nominations must be submitted in writing to the main office of the central election committee (Büro der Geschäftsstelle des Zentralen Wahlvorstandes), rooms H2028/30, within three working days (deadline: 3.00 p.m.) of the party list nominations being announced. If the deadline falls on a Saturday, Sunday or bank holiday, it will be carried over to the next working day.

Absentee voting (Sect. 13, Sub-sect. 1 and Sect. 14, Sub-sect. 1 WahIOstud)

Each eligible voter is entitled to file an application with the election committee for an absentee ballot.

Voters applying for an absentee ballot will receive the absentee ballot documents from the election committee in the post. Absentee ballots must be submitted to the election committee or to an election supervisor (at one of the polling stations) before the deadline for the election closes, i.e. by no later than 4.15 p.m. on 20 June 2014.

When applying for an absentee ballot, please take into account the postage and processing times!

Applications for absentee voting can be submitted in free form and will be accepted at any polling station before the close of the election at 4.15 p.m. on 20 June 2014 (absentee voting centre at the polling station).

Polling days for balloting / polling stations

On each of the polling days, from 16 June to 20 June 2014, voting without a ballot paper will only be possible at the local polling station in the relevant faculty. An official identification document and the student card must be shown.

The polling stations listed below will be open daily from 9.45 a.m. to 4.15 p.m. on 16 June to 20 June 2014.

The polling stations are located as follows:

Faculty	Place/Room	Address

II	MA Foyer	Str. d. 17. Juni 136, 10623 Berlin
IV	MAR Foyer	Marchstraße 23, 10623 Berlin
VI	FH, 3rd floor, open area	Fraunhoferstr. 33-36, 10623 Berlin

Declaration and publication of the election results (§ 16 WahlOStud)

The local election supervisors will notify the election committee of the number of votes cast in person or by absentee ballot at their respective polling stations.

The task of handling absentee ballot documents, counting the votes cast and of declaring the election result is performed by the student election committee (Studentischer Wahlvorstand) with the help of polling officers, and is supervised by the central election committee (Zentraler Wahlvorstand) of the Technische Universität Berlin.

The vote count and the declaration of the election result are open to the public. They will take place in room H 2036 from 6 p.m. on 20 June 2014 and will – if required – be continued at the same venue from 10.00 a.m. on 23 June 2014

As soon as it is known, the preliminary election result will be posted on the bulletin boards of the central election committee (Zentraler Wahlvorstand):

1. behind the foyer in the main building, in the left-hand corridor leading to the student cafeteria (Mensa).
2. outside the main office of the central election committee (Büro der Geschäftsstelle des Zentralen Wahlvorstandes), rooms H2028/30.

The official result will be announced once decisions have been reached on any challenges to the election results.

Tenure

After the official result has been determined, the tenure of the members elected to the Student Parliament will begin on the day that the 35th Student Parliament is convened, but no later than 30 days thereafter, with tenure being suspended during the time that no lectures take place between the 2014 summer semester and 2014/2015 winter semester. It will end when the subsequent Student Parliament convenes for its tenure.

Berlin, 17. April 2014

On behalf of the election committee
